

With nearly three decades of on-set experience as a performer and a successful track record of financing and selling two feature films, I bring a unique perspective to the Union of British Columbia Performers. My grasp of global economics, geopolitics, and emerging image technology positions me well to protect and grow our industry and community. I'm passionate about ensuring the prosperity of all involved, and I'm committed to serving as a dedicated member of the Executive Board.