

I have worked as a stunt performer, actor and in background as an extra. So I know what it's like in the trenches. If elected as one of the eight Directors for our board, I would represent the members and their best interests. It's the voice of the members that matters and that needs to bring about positive changes for our future moving forwards. It would be an honor for me to serve you the members.